PUPIL FREE DAY on MONDAY

On Monday teachers will participate in a session on Learning Strengths The Six Key Skills that increase success for every student, presented by Andrew Fuller.

Circus Quirkus

The Circus Quirkus show was filled with magic, juggling and acrobatics. We all were thoroughly entertained and amazed by how some of the magic tricks were performed. The behaviour of our students throughout the show was impeccable!

School Council

On Tuesday night we were fortunate in having Kathryn Foster from the Respectful Relationships team run a session for School Council on the RR program. Kathryn explained the research behind the program and then briefly shared some of the content in the 8 units, focusing of the two areas of Gender and Identity and Positive Gender Relations. If you would like more information about this program, please contact the school.

VALE Jenny Wright

6th of March 1946 - 18th of July 2022

Jenny was a foundation member of the Undera Primary School Memorial Wall Committee in 2015. Jenny contributed in many ways to make the inaugural Undera Primary School ANZAC Day service a successful event. She was particularly interested in accurately transcribing the names of the World War One veterans for the new Honor Roll and story boards on display at Undera Primary School. Over 500 community members attended this inaugural event.

From 2015 onwards Jenny helped with developing the World War Two Honor Roll. She also liaised with the RSL to make sure there were RSL badges and Poppies available for every student and community member. Jenny continued to contribute towards the ANZAC Day and Remembrance Day services until 2021.

Jenny enjoyed being part of the team at Undera Primary School and helping out tirelessly towards the end goal of the ceremonies held on both ANZAC Day and Remembrance Day. She was in every way a quiet achiever, who derived pleasure from helping the students and the school community.

Thank you, Jenny Wright, for making such a valuable contribution to Undera Primary School. You will be greatly missed by us all.
